- 10 and up - $74 per costume – 2-Tier -- $37 per month for 2 months
- For the Christmas show, we require a $15 t-shirt fee. This will be included in your 2-tier payments and automatically deducted from your account – Sept 1st, add on $7.50 & Oct 1st, add on $7.50.
- Some classes have more than one costume. Please see class listing for total number of costumes.

Levels of Dance Classes:

Pre-K (Ages 3 to 4): For preschoolers, their introduction to dance.

Level 1 (Ages 5 to 9): For children who are at the beginning level of dance, or children who have had a few years off of dance and would like to start again.

Level 2 (Ages 5 to 10): For the dancer with a great foundation looking for more of a challenge in dance class; if 7 or up, this can also be a level to start, call studio to discuss.

Level 2 (Ages 9 and up): Children age 9 and up can begin at Level 2 due to their developmental level and comprehension ability of new movement material. This level is also for the dancer with a great foundation looking for more of a challenge in dance class.

Level 2 & 3 Combo Classes (Ages 7 and up): This level is for those who are advanced beginners striving for more of an intermediate level of dance. This level starts out as advanced beginner and then progresses to the intermediate level by the end of the season.

Level 3 (Ages 9 and up): This level is designed for the intermediate and advanced-intermediate dancer with a greater knowledge, understanding and capability in dance. Can be genre specific based on his/her experience.

Level 4 (Ages 10 and up): This level is only for the advanced-intermediate and advanced dancers per their age. This level focuses on the more intricate choreography, timing concepts and quick study. Dancers will be challenged in each class to not only do the steps, but create the lines, the emotion and the precision that is asked of them.

Performance Troupe/Tap Troupe: Same as Level 4, with progression to Level 5; more performance opportunities – participation in competition and volunteer performances, in addition to the shows and recitals. Level focuses on the more intricate choreography, timing concepts and quick study. Dancers will be challenged in each class to not only do the steps, but create the lines, the emotion and the precision that is asked of them.

Level 5: This level is specific for ballet and Pointe classes. Dancers will work on further developing their Pointe skills through technique and increased time En Pointe, as well as developing greater artistry through learning famous ballet variations.
